Resolutions of Respect.

Whereas, our Brother, Stith Thomas Noe, who for many years has been a faithful laborer in the Lodge here, and who has been a member of the Great Lodge on High, and there is an empty place in our Lodge Room, and we shall no more hear his familiar voice, as with comradery and cheerfulness the sublime Degree.Therefore, be it resolved by Springfield Lodge No. 50 in Lodge assembled:
First, that in the death of our Brother, Stith T. Noe we have lost one whose friendship was always for the good of our order and community, and who not only loved the Order, but labored for its advancement, being constantly willing to spend and be expended in its cause.Second, that it is to us an abiding hope that our

The series of events upon the effect of the far-reaching operations of the chief exploiter of our wealth and enterprise is treasured by many New Yorkers and is kept in the private desk of a number of the leading men of affairs in and near New York. We were not, however, why all our readers should not share the enjoyment now experienced by the comparative few.

I came to a mill by the river side, A half mile long and nearly as wide, With a forest of stumps and an army of men.

Today at furnace and shovel and pen "What a most magnificent plant!" I cried.

And a man with a smudge on his face replied: "It's Morgan's."

I entered a train and rode all day, On a regular boat and a right of way, "Which reached its apex all over the land."

In a system too large to understand, "A splendid property, truly!" I cried: And a man with a smudge on his face replied:

"It's Morgan's."

I sailed on a great ship, trim and true From pennant to keel, from cabin to crew: And the ship was one of a monster fleet:

A first-class navy could scarcely meet "What a beautiful craft, say!" I cried: And a man with a smudge on his face replied:

"It's Morgan's."

I went to heaven, the Jasper vale, Where people were busy, but lands were idle: Her second in law and estate and art Proved generous of muscle and mind

And heart: "What a grand old country it is!" I cried: And a man with a smudge on his face replied:

"It's Morgan's."

I stood in a draught, With my coat off and caught this wretched cold, says the sufferer. He need not pay a heavy penalty if he follows his acts and follow an act of wisdom. Boak the feet in hot water with a few teaspoonful of Perry Davis' Painkiller in it. Take a teaspoonful of Painkiller in sweetened water at bed time and be thankful for so simple and speedy way of curing a cold. There is but one Perry Davis' Painkiller.

Baby in a box.

Mr. William Riley, living in Spencer county, near Cedar Creek church was called out one night last week by unknown persons who said that they desired to talk with him on important business, but, fearing some danger, he refused to comply with the request. The next morning he found near his front gate a fine boy baby in a pasteboard box, with the following was written: "Dear Friend: Will you please take care of this infant for a few days, when friends of mine will call and get it. Please do not make this public. You will be amply rewarded for your care and trouble." Mr. Riley after consulting his friends, took the child to Louisville to secure it a home, and while he was yet in the city, two strangers called at his neighbors home and learned there Mr. Riley's whereabouts, awaiting his

When he came home about ten o'clock they inquired, as the whereabouts of the child, and on being informed, paid him his charges for his trouble, and told him that he kept the child according to instructions they were authorized to give him the hundred dollars. No question the identity of the strangers could be obtained.—Anderson News.

I Never Know Painkiller to Fail

When, what can the matter be? where is the bottle? Think I thought so: but no Perry Davis' Painkiller at all, but something else the druggist must have made himself and I did not notice it: I have used Painkiller for years for diarrhoea, cramps and stomach aches and it never failed.

An Ancient Document.

Messrs. Charles Rogers and Sam Vittoio of the Bellevue neighborhood, were in town Monday and called at THE STANDARD office. Mr. Vittoio had in his possession a land title which is of more than ordinary interest.

The old document has been in the Vittoio family for a period of 119 years, is written on sheep skin and is in an excellent state of preservation. The hand writing is of an elegant character, and the ink is but little faded.

The instrument was executed in 1770, and bears the signature of Patrick Henry, Governor of Virginia, and contains John Vittoio to 170 acres of land near Williams' station, near the Beech River. This land is now occupied by Samuel A. Vittoio, grandson of the original owner, and father of the gentleman who showed the document.

The farm is near Vittoio's ford, and along the dirt road leading from Nelsonville to Bardstown.—Standard.

Lebanon Court.

Next week will be the last week of the present term of Circuit Court, which business has been disposed of during the last three weeks. The Dean will call after consulting an entire week was given the jury late Tuesday afternoon. This case attracted considerable interest, and most of our readers are familiar with the history. Harvey Dean, a well known farmer of the Bradfordville section, at his death several years ago, left a portion of his wealth to the two Presbyterian churches of Lebanon. The will failed to contain provisions for several of Dean's near relatives, and on the ground that the provisions had been brought to bear on their deceased relatives, Geo. M. Phillips and others brought suit to have the will annulled. The case was first tried at the April term of court 1899, and on the 20th day of May 1899 the jury returned a verdict in favor of the plaintiff, declaring the instrument "not the will of Harvey Dean."

The case was taken to the Court of Appeals, where as we are told, it was reversed on the grounds of an error in the instructions. On Tuesday last the case was called again in the circuit court and both sides were ready for trial. The entire week was consumed in taking evidence, five hours for argument and another hour for closing remarks. The case was then adjourned to the next term of court, which will be held on Tuesday afternoon. The case was then adjourned to the next term of court, which will be held on Tuesday afternoon.

A Miraculous

Feat.

"It seemed that nothing short of a miracle could save my little daughter from an untimely death," says City Marshall A. H. Malcolm, of Cherokee, Kan. "When two years old she was taken with stomach and bowel trouble and despite the efforts of the best physicians we could procure, she grew gradually weaker and weaker until she died."

A friend advised me to try Dr. Miles' Nervine, and after giving it a few days she began to improve and finally recovered. She is now past five years of age and the very picture of health.
